

NOTICE OF HOSPICE PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF HEALTH INFORMATION

Hospice of North Central Oklahoma, Inc. (formerly known as Hospice of Ponca City, Inc.) (“Hospice”) may use your health information, information that constitutes protected health information as defined in the Privacy Rule of the Administrative Simplification provision of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, for purposes of providing you treatment, obtaining payment for your care and conducting health care operations. Your health information may be used or disclosed only after the Hospice has obtained your written consent. The Hospice has established a policy to guard against unnecessary disclosure of your health information.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE CIRCUMSTANCE UNDER WHICH AND PURPOSES FOR WHICH YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED:

To Provide Treatment. The Hospice may use your health information in invoices to coordinate care within the Hospice and with others involved in your care, such as your attending physician, members of the Hospice interdisciplinary team, and other health care professionals who have agreed to assist the Hospice in coordinating care. For example, physicians involved in your care will need information about your symptoms in order to prescribe appropriate medications. The Hospice also may disclose your health care information to individuals outside the Hospice involved in your care including family members, pharmacists, suppliers of medical equipment or other health care professionals.

To Obtain Payment. The Hospice may include your health information in invoices to collect payment from third parties for the care you receive from the Hospice. For example, the Hospice may be required by your health insurer to provide information regarding your health care status so that the insurer will reimburse you or the Hospice. The Hospice also may need to obtain prior approval from your insurer and may need to explain to the insurer your need for hospice and the services that will be provided to you.

To Conduct Health Care Operations. The Hospice may use and disclose health care information for its own operation in order to facilitate the function of the Hospice and as necessary to provide quality care to all of the Hospice’s patients. Health care operations include such activities as:

- *Quality assessment and improvement activities.
- *Activities designed to improve health or reduce health care costs.
- *Protocol development, case management and care coordination.
- *Contacting health care providers and patients with information about treatment alternatives and other related functions that do not include treatment.
- *Professional review and performance evaluation.
- *Training programs including those in which students, trainees, or practitioners in health care Learn under supervision.
- *Training of non-health care professionals.
- *Accreditation, certification, licensing, or credentialing activities.

- *Review and auditing, including compliance reviews, medical reviews, legal services, and compliance programs.
- *Business planning and development including cost management and planning related analyses and formulary development.
- *Business management and general administrative activities of Hospice.
- *Fundraising for the benefit of the Hospice.

For example the Hospice may use your health information to evaluate its staff performance, combine your health information with other Hospice patients in evaluating how to more effectively serve all Hospice patients, disclose your health information to Hospice staff and contracted personnel for training purposes, use your health information to contact you as a reminder regarding a visit to you, or contact you or your family as part of general fundraising and community information mailings (unless you tell us you do not want to be contacted).

For Fundraising Activities: The Hospice may use information about you including your name, address, phone number, and the dates you received care at the Hospice in order to contact you or your family to raise money for the Hospice. The Hospice may also release this information to a related Hospice foundation. If you do not want the Hospice to contact you or your family, notify Chief Executive Officer, Marta Sullivan at 580-762-9102, and indicate that you do not wish to be contacted.

For Appointment Reminders: The Hospice may use and disclose your health information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for a home visit.

For Treatment Alternatives: The Hospice may use and disclose your health information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that maybe of interest to you.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH AND PURPOSES FOR WHICH YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION MAY ALSO BE USED AND DISCLOSED.

When Legally Required: The Hospice will disclose your health information when it is required to do so by any Federal, State or Local law.

When There Are Risks to Public Health: The Hospice may disclose your health information for public activities and purposes in order to:

*Prevent or control disease, injury or disability, report disease, injury, vital events such as birth or death and the conduct of public health surveillance, investigations and interventions.

*To report adverse events, product defects, to track products or enable product recalls, repairs and replacements and to conduct post-marketing surveillance and compliance with requirements of the Food and Drug Administration.

*To notify a person who has been exposed to a communicable disease or who may be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease.

*Notify an employer about an individual who is a member of the workforce as legally required.

To Report Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence: The hospice is allowed to notify government authorities if the hospice believes a patient is the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. The hospice will make this disclosure only when specifically required or authorized by law or when the patient agrees to the disclosure.

To Conduct Health Oversight Activities: The hospice may disclose your health information to a health oversight agency for activities including audits, civil administrative or criminal investigation, inspections, licensure or disciplinary action. The hospice, however, may not disclose your health information if you are the subject of an investigation and your health information is not directly related to your receipt of health care or of public benefits.

In Connection With Judicial and Administrative Procedures: The hospice may disclose your health information in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal as expressly authorized by such order or in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process, but only when the hospice makes reasonable efforts to either notify you about the request or to obtain an order protecting your health information.

For Law Enforcement Purposes: The hospice may disclose your health information to a law enforcement official for law enforcement purposes as follows:

- As required by law for reporting of certain types of wounds or other physical injuries pursuant to the court order, warrant, subpoena or summons or similar process.
- For the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person.
- For certain limited circumstances, when you are the victim of a crime.
- To a law enforcement official if the hospice has a suspicion that your death was the result of criminal conduct including criminal conduct at the hospice.
- In an emergency to report a crime.

To Coroner and Medical Examiners: The hospice may disclose your health information to coroners and medical examiners for purposes of determining your cause of death or for other duties, as authorized by law.

To Funeral Directors: The hospice may disclose your health information to funeral directors consistent with applicable law and if necessary, to carry out their duties with respect to your funeral arrangements. If necessary to carry out their duties, the hospice may disclose your health information prior to and in reasonable anticipation, of your death.

For Organ, Eye, or Tissue Donation: The hospice may use or disclose your health information to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking or transplantation of organs, eyes, or tissue for the purpose of facilitating the donation and transplantation.

For Research Purposes: The hospice may, under very select circumstances, use your health information for research. Before the hospice discloses any of your health information for such research purposes, the project will be subject to an extensive approval process.

In the Event of a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: The hospice may, consistent with applicable law and ethical conduct, disclose your health information if the hospice, in good faith, believes that such disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to your health or safety or to the health and safety of the public.

For Specified Government Functions: If certain circumstances, the Federal regulations authorize the hospice to use or disclose your health information to facilitate specified government functions relating to military and veterans, national security and intelligence activities, protective services for the President and others, medical suitability determinations and inmates and law in enforcement custody.

For Worker's Compensation: The hospice may release your health information for worker's compensation or similar programs.

AUTHORIZATION TO USE OR DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION

Other than is stated above, the hospice will not disclose your health information other than with your written authorization. If you or your representative authorizes the hospice to use or disclose your health information, you may revoke that authorization in writing at any time.
